

Lessons Learned – Boston Marathon Bombing and Sandy Hook School Shooting Comments from Attendees, November 12, 2013, St. Paul, Minnesota

“Corey MacDonald was outstanding”

Linda Swanson, ISD 94

“Carly Posey was very effective and presented very helpful information that we can take back to our schools and share.”

Tyler Sense , Winona Senior High School

“Deputy Chief’s presentation is the most relevant information I have had in years. I have been in law enforcement for 17 years and could listen to him all day long.”

Angie Evans, Investigator, Winona Co. Sheriff’s Office

“Posey had people on the edge of their seat – people want to know the real story.”

Kim Lund , Minneapolis Police Dept.

“Good overall – lots of food for thought.”

Dave Anderson, Winona Public Schools

“Excellent presentations – real life.”

Robin Wall, ACGC Public Schools

“Lots of good information to take back to our schools. We have a lot in place but still a lot of work to do.”

Jennifer Hansen, Marshall Schools

“I am a teacher, EMT, 911 dispatcher and wife of a police officer. I truly enjoyed all the different perspectives on the events. Opened my mind to our schools and response to emergencies there. Well done, thank you.”

Melissa Swyter, Renville Co. Sheriff’s Office

“Posey and MacDonald were very good.”

Lt. Tom Gifferson, Hutchinson Police Dept.

“Great seminar and it gave so much information to think about. So thankful for everyone’s time and thoughts.”

Brett Carlson, North Branch Schools

“Awesome presentations/seminar – very informative – would have liked more time for brainstorming session.”

Renae Shutrop, SACS School Safety Committee
